

McDonald's Gifts a 1000 McChickens to its Customers

McDonald's Saudi Arabia in the Western & Southern regions launched its “Nights at McDonald’s” event once again in appreciation of its loyal customers and to serve as an expression of gratitude to all the McDonald's lovers over the years.

Visitors were able to enjoy a free McChicken sandwich within all McDonald’s branches located across the Western and Southern regions on Monday, February 10 of 2020 from 9 pm until midnight. The 1000 free McChickens were distributed in all McDonald’s branches except mall stores, airport stores and Makkah Haram. McDonald's goal was to create happy and memorable moments with its customers who spend their nights in McDonald's accompanied by loved ones, whether with family or friends.

Mr. Mohamed Ali Reza, Deputy General Manager of Reza Food Services Co. Ltd., McDonald's -Western and Southern Region stated: “We have witnessed an unexpected turnout in previous years when distributing the 1000 McChickens during “Nights at McDonald’s”, and these moments are rooted in our memories forever. We always strive to give back and express our gratitude to McDonald's customers which is why, we decided to bring back this special night. We’d like to honorably mention all the McDonald's employees for their efforts that helped make this great night successful. We’ve always been happy to serve our customers throughout the years and hope to serve them continuously.”
